

Over £100,000 pledged again this week! Thank you!

Newsletter #49

Corpus Christi finish with a flourish!

Congratulations to Canon Simon Thomson and the parishioners of Wokingham who conducted their final activities last weekend.

Thanks to Canon Simon's efforts, parishioners have indicated they would be willing to pledge an additional £60,000 towards the parish target, taking them over goal!

Canon Simon said 'I've been truly humbled by the generosity of people across our parish. Fundraising is always hard but in the current economic climate it's even more difficult. But it just goes to show that, despite this, parishioners are keen to support their priests and their parish when asked and I can't thank them enough'.

St. Boniface hit milestone

We were really pleased to see Fr. Tom Kleinschmidt and the Parish of St Boniface hit 50% of their goal this week.

Father Tom has put a lot of time and energy into sharing the initiative across the parish, meeting with over 70 families to date.

There are 20 families currently considering their support and Father Tom hopes to receive their decisions before launching the next phase in a week's time. We would be delighted if as many families as possible can return their pledge forms at Mass this weekend.

Jersey complete Campaign!

The Catholic Parish of Jersey also completed the campaign last weekend, with Canon Dominic and his team doing a fantastic job in conducting the Thanksgiving Mass.

A further £50,000 in pledges was indicated at this event which means that, once pledge forms are received the parish will realise its target of £575,000! This is a truly wonderful achievement!

We look forward to updating you on their final outcome in the next couple of weeks.
